

An open invitation to Philadelphia area music students

The Lancaster Avenue Jazz & Arts Festival presents our 3rd Annual Master Class featuring composer & pianist Sumi Tonooka at the Community Education Center (3500 Lancaster Ave.) on July 15, 2016 at 6:00pm.

Sumi Tonooka (pronounced To-NO-ka) has been called a “fierce and fascinating composer and pianist” (Jazz Times), “provocative and compelling” (New York Times), and “continually inventive, original, surprising, and a total delight,” (Cuadranos de Jazz, Madrid). During a career spanning more than 30 years that has taken her from bases in Philadelphia & Boston, to New York & Seattle, Tonooka has been developing a body of work that surprises and delights audiences – quietly piling up accolades from jazz writers and fellow musicians.

Curated by trumpeter Josh Lawrence, this year’s Master Class has been expanded to include 3 preparatory workshops led by Lawrence at the CEC located at 3500 Lancaster Avenue and an opportunity for select students to perform on the Festival Main Stage on July 16.

We invite students of saxophone, trumpet, trombone, guitar, piano, bass, and drums to participate in the workshops and Master Class.

Parents & Guardians can enroll by emailing joshlawrencejazz@gmail.com.

Saturday Workshop Dates – Dates: June 25th, July 2nd and July 9th and will take place from 11:00am-2:00pm.

This initiative is sponsored by People’s Emergency Center in collaboration with the Producer’s Guild of Philadelphia, Community Education Center and the Mann Center for Performing Arts.

Visit lancasteravejazzfest.com for more information about the Festival.
